SPACE LIMITED
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Older siblings are welcome, but the focus of the group will be on children five and under. Adults must supervise their children.

NOTE: Participants with a PPLD library card receive two hours of FREE parking in the lot in front of The Hall; parking without a card is $1.50 per hour. Go to the kiosk on the east side of the parking lot, enter your license plate, and scan your library card for free parking. If you don't have a library card, visit your nearest branch to get one!

Joint Initiatives for Youth + Families and The Community Cultural Collective have partnered to enhance interactions between children and caregivers through an infusion of early childhood enrichment programming. This arts-based training focuses on language, literacy, numeracy, and social-emotional skill building that reinvigorates caregivers and inspires high-quality interactions that build the brains of our youngest learners.
